Edward Michener, M. L. A., Royally Entertained at Evarts.

A very enjoyable entertainment was held in the Evarts school house on Saturday night, the 3rd instant, when the people here turned out in large numbers to meet Edward Michener, M.L.A. The school room was filled with enthusiastic electors, anxious to become better acquainted with the member, and to hear from him concerning this part of the constituency. There were fully one hundred guests present, including several from Eckville, Red Deer and other parts. Among those present were Messrs. Michener, Malcolm and Greene from Red Deer.

The chairman, Mr. Lindelof, took the chair, and in a few well chosen remarks, expressed the pleasure of the people of Evarts in having present the member for the district when the elections were so distant in the future, a fact so noticeable in the past.

The program consisted of several recitations and speeches, followed by an oyster supper. The recitations of Mr. Ralph Mathew were well received.

Mr. G. W. Greene addressed with a few remarks, and spoke of the general feeling of satisfaction throughout the constituency on the result of the election; also the change of feeling from all parts of the constituency towards each part, notwithstanding the efforts of some of the campaigneers to create a feeling in the country against the town of Red Deer. He amusingly contrasted the intelligent, splendid, sober minded gathering present at this smoker with the bacchanalian smoker held here about two weeks ago on behalf of the opposition. He spoke in an optimistic vein of the bright future there was for the Evarts district, and hoped they would all join together to do their part in making the district the best of the best Province in the Dominion.

When Mr. Michener rose to address the meeting he was greeted with cheers. He thanked those who had stood so loyally by him, notwithstanding the character of the campaign against him. Now that the election was over he considered he was the representative of all, without regard to their political allegiance. He asked them all to lay aside all party feelings and join with him, and assist him in his efforts to serve the best interests of the district as a whole, having regard to the most pressing and urgent needs first, no matter in what part it might be. He entertained nothing but the best and kindest feelings for all, and had no fault to find with any who, on honest convictions, did not support him. It would be his duty to give the best that was in him for the welfare, progress and prosperity of the most important district which he had now been called upon to represent in the legislature of Alberta, and without regard to party. His efforts would largely depend upon the united effort and co-operation of the people, and for this purpose he asked each one to join with him. He had promised, if elected, he would make frequent visits throughout the district to get better acquainted with the people and their wants. Next week he proposed to spend in the west, when he would meet them and learn of their wants.

He spoke in glowing terms of the possibilities of the district, and expressed the hope that before long there would be not only a railway into the west country, but one from north to south through the Medicine Valley. He urged them all to have faith in the district, to remain by the results of their labors, and hoped before very long there would be ample reward for their patience and perseverance.

When Mr. Michener closed his splendid address he was cheered and cheered.

At the close of the program the assembly sat down and enjoyed themselves at a splendid oyster supper, served by Mr. J. H. Robinson and others.

The meeting broke up at a few minutes to twelve with cheers for Mr. Michener, and sang "for he's a jolly good fellow."

This was no doubt the best political entertainment ever held in Evarts, and every one expressed the confidence they had in our member and went away believing he could make good.

Alberta Pacific Elevator Company to Double Capacity.

COULD BUY FORTY THOUSAND BUSHELS OF BARLEY NOW.

So great has been the demand for the barley products of the Alberta Pacific Elevator Company in the way of chop, that the company have decided to double the capacity of their mill at Red Deer at once, and Mr. Nelson, foreman of the construction crew, is expected in Red Deer in about three weeks to start operations as soon as they can get the present order of 100 tons of barley chop shipped to Mexico. Not only will the capacity for grinding be doubled, but three large bins will be added to the elevators. The drive-way will be improved, a new boiler for heating purposes, and many other minor details will be gone into.

The company could make contract for forty thousand bushels now if they could secure the barley. If any farmer wants seed the Elevator Company have about 2000 bushels Alberta six-rowed for sale for which they ask 65 cents per bushel, and they have about 600 bushels of Washington blue barley, for which they ask 75 cents per bushel.

Football League for School Boys under 15 Years.

With the full approval of the Principal, the plan suggested for forming a football league for the younger school boys has come into shape. Over 80 boys, between the ages of ten and fifteen years, met together in the School Assembly Hall and appointed eight of their number to be captains. These captains then met together and chose their teams. The captains are Charles Smith, Jim Krause, Ferdinand Keinholt, Roy Malcolm, Percy Smith, Chas. Carwell, Freddie George and Frank Rich. A cup promised by Mr. Carwell, and to be known as "The News Cup," is the trophy to be played for. The Rev. Moore is acting as manager of the league and as referee in the matches. It is hoped to begin the matches in Easter week. Each team will meet the other teams twice, and the team which scores the most points wins the cup. In case two or more teams score an equal number of points these teams will meet again to play to a finish. A win counts two points and a draw one point. It is hoped the parents will turn out to watch these matches, which will be played in the afternoon after school hours.

The happy couple left by the night train for Iowa.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 7th, 1909.

THE GROWING OF BARLEY.

Mr. Greenway, the manager of the Alberta Pacific Elevator company is very anxious farmers should grow more barley. He informed the Editor of The News that he could sell 1,000 tons of barley for next year's shipment at once if he could be assured the barley would be grown. This crop is shipped by the company to Mexico for horse feeding purposes on railway construction. The company is willing to pay the highest market price.

No doubt a new era has dawned for Alberta producers, and especially that of barley. The new western route is now an accomplished fact and export markets are opening their doors to us every day only to find that farmers have only a small offering in export stuff. The farmer understands the value of wheat and oat production because these cereals have always been exported and have brought good prices. It is different with barley, as there has been no outside sale and consequently it has been grown only for feed purposes or for rotation of crops.

With the change of the markets farmers must change their methods and grow more barley. The Alberta Pacific Elevator Co. people are anxious to export 1,000,000 bushels at good prices if they can get the grain the coming season. They can find a good market for all that can be grown and farmers will do well to at least devote a fair share of their energies to growing barley the coming season.

The Advocate says the editor of the News has a funny way of promoting harmony in the Conservative ranks, by claiming he could have got the nomination with his country support. We said nothing of the sort; it was the town support we might have got. But the editor of the News, together with every other worker of the party, desired to bring out the strongest man, and we strongly urged some of our friends to vote for the man they thought most likely to win and we also voted for Mr. Michener. There was not a shadow of discord in the Conservative ranks; and we all know that the choice was a good one by the splendid majority rolled up for Mr. Michener on the 22nd of March, a majority which it would have been impossible for the editor of this paper, or any other Conservative, to have secured.

The Advocate comes out strong in favor of Dr. Clark's stand when he opposed the motion in the House to appoint a western farmer on the Railway Commission. The doctor said he did not stand for class legislation, but when he opposed a farmer he favored another class, the bloated manufacturers, whom he so soundly abused during his recent campaign. When he was electioneering he said he would do all in his power for the farming class as he was a farmer himself. His first vote was cast against the farmers' interests and he glories in it.

It is hoped all the surrounding unions of the U. F. A. will put in some hard work for the next ten days and then make their returns, when it is thought there will be well nigh ten thousand hopes promised in the Red Deer and neighboring districts by that time.

The Advocate had anti-on-the-brain last week. We would most humbly suggest that the editor take an anti-billious pill and clear his system of the bile that has lingered since the elections.

Terrific Battle With big Eagle.

St. Charles, Ill. April 1.—Fighting desperately for two hours with a monster eagle to keep his baby from the menacing talons of the great bird, Peter Johnson a farmer with the aid of neighbors, finally captured the king of the air.

Fully a score of persons participated in the conflict with the eagle, and pitchforks, clubs and stones were brought into service before the bird, exhausted from its efforts, gave up the battle. Johnson was terribly scratched in the encounter, although his son was unhurt.

The Johnson boy, a sturdy child of three years, was playing on his father's farm near St. Charles this morning when the eagle was first observed. The great bird circled about the vicinity at a great height for several minutes. Suddenly with the speed of a lightning flash it darted down and its steel like talons had caught in the child's dress.

The child's surprise for a second struck him dumb, and the eagle using every ounce of its strength, bore the boy upward.

Surprise gave way to alarm. The child screamed for aid and struggled vigorously to free himself from the eagle's clutches. The boy is stockily built, weighing about 35 lbs., and the bird was unable to make great progress.

The father heard the screams of his child and hurried from his home. He saw the boy in the birds' clutches and ran towards the scene of the struggle.

LOCKED IN DEATH GRIP.

With all his strength he threw himself on the eagle and bore it to the ground. The child was saved and ran shrieking for assistance for his father. The man and the bird were locked in a death grip, the eagle using his claws while Johnson struck out with his free hand as he held the bird with the other.

Neighbors were soon on the scene. From the start they were determined if possible to capture the eagle alive. Sticks and stones fell on its monster body, while both were engaged in an immediately crippled.

The breaking of the wings made escape of the eagle impossible, but for two hours he flutted along the ground fiercely repelling every attack, until completely exhausted, he was pinned to the earth by two pitch forks.

The eagle was measured and proved to be twelve feet from tip to tip of his wings and a perfect specimen of its kind. It is believed that it will speedily recover from injuries received in its struggle with the man and Johnson intends to present it to the zoological garden.

Although Johnson is suffering intense pain as a result of the scratches received in the fight, none of his hurts are regarded as dangerous, the worst wound being an immense gash torn in his left shoulder. He was greatly weakened from loss of blood.

The boy is none the worse for his experience and takes the greatest delight in watching the imprisoned bird.

Gaetz Valley.

Mr. Parker Smith who has been at Monarch in the furniture business, was a Gaetz Valley visitor on the latter part of last week.

The Gaetz Valley Sunday School will re-open on April 11th with Mr. Shaver as superintendent and Mr. Wm. Shuttlesworth as assistant superintendent.

The cry is again here "Let us get back to the land."

Correspondence.

March, 26th, 1909.

To the Editor of the News:

Dear Sir,—Would you kindly allow me a little space in your valuable paper.

In reference to my letter of March 18th, in the News, C. P. Mellor's reply in the Advocate Mar. 19th, as follows:

In reply to the above I have to say that the matter relating to my letter is a deliberate and malicious falsehood.

Yours Truly

C. P. MELLOR.

Now Mr. C. P. Mellor this is too thin. You know perfectly well or should know that you cannot hide your guilt behind such flimsy words. I say that when you penned the above lines, you penned an internal falsehood. You did knock me out of that job and you know it and for nothing else, because I was not in your line of politics, but blow the job, although I would need it to live without it. You have put yourself up as being the whole cheese about this bridge from the beginning. I called at your house about four years ago about this bridge and you allowed me to mention (lest you've forgot) that we participated in black tea and peanuts and after this refreshment, I asked you to head a petition to get this bridge in question, and you did so but did not sign it because you said "when the petition reaches the officials at Edmonton they will consult me if there is need of a bridge at this place and it will be time enough to give my approval then." I went ahead with my petition and got I think about seventy-five signers and sent it in to our worthy member J. T. Moore and that was the last of it. I did not get even a reply whether he had received it or not. About two or three months later I met you in Everts and asked you if you had heard anything of that petition about the bridge and you did not answer my question but said "the members of Parliament have something else to do besides reading the people's petitions." A fine servant of the people you would be and I told you so at the time. I soon found the reason why the petition was not taken into consideration.

Everts has offended you in some way and you caused a bridge to be built across the Horseshoe Creek about fifteen miles N. W. of Everts and you have your influence against Everts and for Eekville but the people of the west did not heed your admonition. Everts was good enough for them and in consequence I don't think a dozen persons have crossed that bridge since it was built but sits up there in a lonely muskeg as a monument of C. P. Mellor's Political Economy.

C. P. Mellor was appointed high moke for the Government road building in this part of the country; the work he did will talk for itself. Let us only mention that he had the power to appoint road bosses and I had the honor to be one, some were paid $2.00 some $2.50 and $3.00 a day, according to their political faith.

We all remember that some time ago there was to be elected for Alberta a member to the house of Ottawa and our honorable friend J. T. Moore could to get J. T. Moore to step down to Ottawa he—himself might step up to Edmonton and at this time I met him in the Parker House bar room and he called me out in the waiting room and offered me $10.00 a day if I would work for him the four remaining days up to Election Day but I scorned the offer and that evening coming home from Everts I found a bottle of Scotch in my furcoat pocket, and that ought to cover a multitude of sins at least in his estimation. Now let me close with an appeal to you who are high and mighty with power to appoint, throw more fertilizer like this into the political field and we will have Socialism in our time.

Yours truly
ALFRED ISAACSON.

Dear Sir—Would you allow me to "take the cudgel" after our dear friend U. E. Loyalist, as we don't want to leave to him alone the task of "thrashing out the school question."

Some can say much in a short space, such does not seem to be the case with Loyalist, and if he were to dwell any more on the subject, we should advise the News to provide a supplementary page for his lengthy, old fashioned, commonplace declamations. This fearful mess, in which the "foreign potentate," the "new Bible religion," patronized by Loyalist as a dear offspring of his rich imagination and instances of his own experience appear with a fearful clash of words, is far from being convincing, at least to sensible people.

Why do you oppose patriotism to religion or rather to the Catholic church alone? Why don't you get as well after the disciples of Dowle or John E. or these leaders live outside of Canada as well as the Pope. If Loyal is your name as well as Loyalist admit that Catholics are far from being dear to you, but then what credit can we give to the assertion of a prejudiced mind?

Again, if your theological knowledge allows it, please tell us in what consists exactly your "plain religion of the Bible." In the name of the Bible some assert that Christ is God, some that He isn't. What else have you discovered?

I must show you how poor your argument is. "Any church," you say, that objects to the Bible on which our laws are founded is also an enemy to the laws and the country." Who objects to the Bible? Nobody. All in this country admit of the Bible, the Catholics as well, and perhaps more than many others. But then, all do agree as to the interpretation of the Sacred Book. Each Protestant denomination, nearly every individual, has his own way of understanding the Bible. I suppose that you yourself are indebted to the same Bible for the discovery of your "plain religion." (Perhaps too plain to be of any good.)

And then why do you deny to the Catholic church the right of having her own interpretation of the Bible? If she finds it in that she should have the Pope as a supreme head, and that religion and education must go together, why do you object? The Catholic church lets you free to practice your "plain religion," why don't you treat her as liberally?

Elementary Psychology teaches us that the same act may be prompted by two contrary motives. You refer to the priest, who dropped his hand when he heard you were not of his flock, and your conclusion is—inference. Would it not be due as well to a sentiment of delicacy? A minister of religion is surely a hands with people of his denomination, even if they are strangers, because he is pretty sure to cause them a real pleasure. The result may be totally different if the stranger be somebody who does not share of his creed, and a prudent reserve is conceivable.

Now your supposition that the priest in question may have been Rev. Father Voisin does not betray much charity and is unnecessarily disobliging. If you were more in touch with Red Deer, you would know that Father Voisin shakes hands very heartily with people of all denominations, and that if he were to meet you he would deal with you as gentlemanly as with the rest of the people.

Thinking you in advance, Mr. Editor, I am yours, no less than our friend Loyalist, for a "united people" and prosperous Canada.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

YET PARAGRAPHS.

Tyranny is the wisdom of the foolish and the vice of the wise man.

The man who is indifferent to the man who is not awake to his opportunities.

No man is tyrannical - without opportunity.

The way to a man's life is through his stomach.

When you have a grievance to nurse, hire a trained nurse at $25 per day and you will soon get over it.

No one whose judgment is worth the trouble of getting judges impartially.

Set a thief to catch a thief.

Being an old bachelor is a credit to no one and a satisfaction to but few.

Women are particular, while men are merely peculiar.

The thing that goes without saying isn't a woman.

troduce them.

On the Way Home.
A party of Scotsmen had been having a little celebration in a Canadian township, and unsteady were the steps on the home going in the morning. One fell by the wayside and called for help from another wayfarer. The would be good Samaritan tried to steady his self as he looked down upon the fallen one and then settled matters by saying:
"I cannot help ye up, but I'll lie down aside ye."

plained, "that I was the light of your

"I know it," he replied, with almost brutal frankness, "but that was before

SEASONABLE ADMONITION.

Here is advice that none should fail to duly digest.

When going for a summer sail,
Least friends and relatives should wait,
Don't look back the boat!

Not only men of humble estate if you would that Along the coast of the summer sea,
Don't fret and fume in nervous stress;
Don't look back the boat!

Who seek to run the ship of state,
Don't look back the boat!

One of Life's Ironies.

This is the girl who used to say she would never marry a man unless he could look up to him. - Philadelphia

Debate on Ten Million Loan to G. T. Pacific.

Ottawa, March 30.-Shortly after the assembling of the commons, Hon. Mr. Fielding moved a resolution authorizing the loan of $10,000,000 to the G. T. P. for the completion of the western division. The minister of finance dealt with the matter with considerable detail. The government had guaranteed the prairie section, provided the cost did not exceed $15,000 per mile. As to the mountain section had guaranteed three quarters of the cost, the resolution dealt with the prairie section only. The government guaranteed $11,000,000 and balance spent by the company aggregating $21,509,920 or $23,482 a mile for the 916 miles, was exhausted. As the company was bound to raise at least $15,000 per mile, the minister considered it would be unfortunate if the company was forced to issue securities when there was a stress on the money market, as they could only be sold at a sacrifice.
The minister claimed that a similar loan to the C. P. R. had been justified by history. He admitted that the mortgage was not of high rank as three others had precedence over it, viz, government mortgage on guarantee, the company's own guarantee and loan on equipment; bonds of the company, which would be given in security would be the same guarantee as they would on money market; the guarantee of the company itself.

BORDEN'S CRITICISM.

R. L. Borden replied that he recognized that having been introduced into the G. T. P. contract would have to be carried out. If the company was not prepared to carry out the terms of its contract as set out in the two acts of parliament, then it was for the parliament to say under what terms change should be made.

The Conservative leader reviewing events from 1903 and noted that two thirds of the arguments used then proved to be "kale dromas." The premier's argument that it would increase the northern zone of the dominion, which nullified by the construction of the line 150 miles south of the projected route, and for many miles within a stone's throw of two other transcontinental systems.

EXPERTS.

Contrasting U. S. methods, Mr.
Borden said Panama canal commissioners were all experts, while the transcontinental commissioners: Parnell, a Quebec lawyer; Molleson, a Nova Scotia lawyer; Reid, an expert on Stationary and Coasts; and Young an agriculturist. Mr. Borden estimated that road would cost $250,000,000, as compared with the original estimate $13,000,000 and disagreed with Mr. Fielding's opening statement that the resolution would not interfere with the contract between the G. T. P. and the company. After denouncing the Grand Trunk contract for diverting Canadian traffic to Portland, Maine, and declaring the G. T. P. commissioners as lacking in intelligence, Mr. Borden concluded by asking the government minister what the government proposed to do for Canada.

Mr. Parnell, Lambton, argued for the early construction of the G. T. P. as the necessity for the road was increasing yearly.

GOVERNMENT CONTROL.

W. F. McMeLean moved an amendment that the government purchase the controlling interest in the G. T. P. stock for further security for its commitments.
Mr. McMeLean thought the C. P. R. or C. N. R. might get ahead by purchasing the G. T. P. comstock. The speaker objected to the amendment as no notice was given. Mr. McMeLean said he would let it stand and give the government an opportunity to accept it later.

Mr. Northrup, Hastings, said Mr. Hayes should be stayed for the statement in his letters and declared that the Grand Trunk had burned vouchers wanted in the public accounts committee.

STRONG SUPPORT OF ROAD.

Mr. Martin, Regina, and Mr.
Turfill, Assiniboia, vigorously
defended the government policy.
Mr. Turfill asserted that it was superior to the C. P. R. and the
C. N. R. and that the G. T. P. had not been as liberally treated, even when the present loan was made in accordance with Mr. Ames moved adjournment of the debate which was resumed yesterday.

Mo Protestant Need Apply.

(Taken from The Sentinel March 18th, 1906.)

We submit for the consideration of our readers the following despatch, sent by the Canadian Associated Press reporter from London on Saturday last:
London March 13.-Speaking on Church prospects in Canada, Archdeacon Renison, of Moosejaw, gave warm praise to the work of the Colonial Continental Church Society, which stands for nothing less than Perpetual Protestantism.

Christianity among the English speaking people. Bishop Renison told how travelling in Liverpool and London lately, he met an emigrant agent of the Canadian Government. This man was a German, who had built up a prosperous home in Canada, and foreseeing the future prosperity of the country, he asked the Canadian Government to appoint him as agent. For the last few years he has been working in his native country bringing out bands of emigrants and settling them in the fairest parts of Alberta and Saskatchewan.

This man told Bishop Renison he had instructions to bring out only emigrants of the Catholic faith. Hundreds of German Roman Catholics were being planted year after year by the Canadian Government in the prairie West. Bishop Renison feared the time may come when the Church of England will be unknown in the countryside.

Here is a statement made upon the authority of an Archdeacon of the Anglican Church. It confirms the opinion that many people in this country have had for a long time that the present federal Government, acting under the influence of the Roman Catholic hierarchy, is taking an active part in making Canada a Roman Catholic country. According to the Archdeacon, an agent of the Canadian Government told him that he had instructions to bring out only immigrants of the Catholic faith. If this is not playing the game of Romanism, we would like to know how else it can be characterized. It will be interesting also to learn whether similar instructions have not been given to other immigration agents who have been sent at the expense of the people to Canada to secure settlers from the various parts of Europe. "No Protestant need apply" seems to be the motto of the Canadian Government in seeking settlers for the West.

The despatch outlines a deliberate policy to assist the Roman Church in securing control of the Western Provinces.
Surely it is time for Protestants to be up and doing to circumvent such a movement as this. Bishop Renison expresses the fear that the day may come when the Church of England will be unknown in the countryside of Canada. The situation as outlined in the brief despatch, which comes from impartial sources, is one that is sufficiently serious to rouse the active and earnest opposition of every man in the country who believes in civil and religious liberty.

Lacrosse.

To Form Alberta League.

Calgary, Herald.

Lacrosse activity is becoming general and the players and men most prominently connected with the king of Canadian summer games are getting busy preparing for the season. A big league will be formed this summer with teams from Edmonton, Calgary, Lethbridge, Strathcona and Medicine Hat. Delegates will attend the annual meeting from these points, and delegates will also be present from the intermediate towns.

Strathcona has always had a splendid team and the local boys and, in fact, all of the league teams will have to go to good work to keep down those northerners.

Special attention will be paid to intermediate lacrosse in the city and efforts will be made to form a city intermediate league.
If this is impossible there will be a Calgary intermediate team to play with the outside intermediate league. Nanton, Red Deer, High River, the Lead, and Bonar towns of like size will play in the intermediate outside league.

Mr. Martin, Regina, and Mr.
Turfill, Assiniboia, vigorously
defended the government policy.
Mr. Turfill asserted that it was superior to the C. P. R. and the
C. N. R. and that the G. T. P.

bate which was resumed yester-

The doctor was in Red Deer but Mrs. Tonohe and the children were in the house at the time and barely escaped with their lives. So far as we can learn nothing was saved. The fire is supposed to have originated from the heating stove. There was about $5,000 insurance on residence, furniture, drugs, and medical instruments.

SHE LOOKED GOOD TO HIM.

A man once remarked to me, after I had fitted him with glasses to correct an astigmatic error of rather high degree, that his wife looked so much prettier to him that he felt he hadn't paid all the job was worth. The only thing that saved him from a double charge was that he had said his wife not his neighbor's.

I give you a straight 60 per cent written guarantee and stand behind it without quibbling in any way. If you buy a stallion of me you will be taken care of and the horse will be just as good as you think you are getting. Geo. F. Root.

A huge hat was seen by two gentlemen on the sidewalk near Lumber on Saturday afternoon. One of the pair wondering what it was doing there far away from its native store window was showing signs of an intention of taking it back to Lord's when his companion stopped him with the remark: "Don't touch it. There's a woman inside it. I can see her feet sticking out."

M. Card, of Content, has purchased from Geo. F. Root the stallion Vulcan (842) 42008 bred by D. Augustin, Garbock III. and foaled July 29-1904. He was sired by Kellermann (Imp). This horse is of the low, thick and wide type with plenty of bone of most excellent quality. He is a beautiful black with fine style and action. For the last two years he has been in E. O. Wolcott's stud at Gilmore City, Iowa, and his colts are good enough to be shown in any class. He is sure to leave his mark in the Content neighborhood.

At the annual meeting of the Red Deer Lacrosse Club last evening the following officers were elected for the present year: Patrons and patronesses Mr. and Mrs. Botterill and Mrs. H. Walker. Hon. Pres. E. M. Hender; Hon. Vice Pres. E. Payne; Vice Presidents, R. Brumpton and J. C. Rutter; Sec.-Treas., A. E. Bingham; Executive, H. R. Main, H. Murray and E. R. D. Porter with the president and secretary. The Club decided to enter the intermediate league.

Geo. F. Root, sold last week to John Kennedy and Sons the good two year old colt Franklin, foaled June 10th, 1906, sired by Solomon one of the great breeding horses in the United States.

He was bred by Mr. Davis of Ames, the home of the Iowa Agricultural College and was one of the two best Percherons shown in the spring offerings at that place. He is a fine upstanding beautiful gray, weighing over 1800 pounds and will easily make a ton horse. The people west of town are to be congratulated and Kennedy & Sons to be commended for bringing so good a horse into the neighborhood. A dealer in market horses remarked when examining Mr. Kennedy's purchase he would know where to go in a few years to purchase market toppers as they are always sold by this type of a horse.

FARMERS, BE PREPARED!

The surest way to have a crop is to properly plant the seed. The surest way to plant the seed is with one of our Disc or Shoe Drills. You can not afford to wait for your neighbor's drill this year, because this is a late spring, and everybody will have to hurry in order to get the full advantage of the growing season, which is none too long at the best. Then why trifle with nature? Buy your own Drill, and sow when you like.

We will guarantee to sell you a Drill on such terms that it will pay for itself.

Remember the Experimental Farm Superintendents claim 5 to 8 bushels more to the acre and 4 to 7 days earlier in ripening—so what is the use of flinching with danger.

Only a few Drills left, at special terms and prices. First come, first served.

THE REGISTERED TROTTER STALLION

"ZOMVERT" 2 29 4

Was sired by the world renowned "Zomburo" 2 11, the greatest show horse and sire of extreme speed that ever lived. Besides many other great ones he sired "Italia" 2 04, world's record for green mare, "San Francisco" 2 07, world's record for three heats by green stallion, "Hymettus" 2 08, world's record for three years old gelding. Zomvert's claim to greatness rests not alone with his sire, as his 1st and 2nd dams were both great trotters and his 3rd dam was "Teora", one of the twelve greatest mares that ever lived. Come to my barn and carefully study his tabulated pedigree, and you will be convinced he is a Prince, and son of a King. The Zomburos have sold for thousands, where other good horses have brought only hundreds. Farmers as well as others, look to your interests, and breed a mare or two to a Zomvert while you can. For the present season he will stand for service at my livery and feed barn on Alexander Street, Red Deer, Alta., at prices within the reach of all.

Card of Thanks.

It is a custom in all civilized countries for daymen to return thanks to their patrons after the cold winter winds have passed away.

We kindly thank our friends for buying our milk at 5c, when they have been bought from the other dairies for 7c.

Now, when the grass is turning green, and the roses are in bloom, please don't forget your friend, who, when the snow was sitting gently down inside his coat collar, and his little feet were getting cold, never forgot you.
